

Circular No.16 of General Administration of Customs of P.R.China in 2006

(On the implementation of 'PRC Customs Catalogue for Standardized Declaration of Import and Export Goods' )

Apr 7, 2006

The notice is hereby given on,

In order to standardize the customs declaration procedures by imported and exported enterprises, upgrade the quality of declaration data and facilitate trade, General Administration of Customs of P. R. China compiles and publishes 'Customs Catalogue for Standardized Declaration of Import and Export Goods' (hereafter referred to as Catalogue, published by China Customs Press.)

Effective May 1, 2006. Shippers and Consignees of import and export goods, or their agents, must complete the Declaration Forms according to the requirements on the standardization of the names and specifications of declared articles in the Catalogue and follow the customs rules and regulations strictly in completing Customs Clearance procedures.

General Office