

FedEx helps you grow your business in the United States. Deliver directly to your customers with quality and freshness using our flower services

Your shipments without FedEx: from 7 to 10 days

Your shipments using FedEx: from 1 to 4 days

FedEx connects the world's most important flower markets

We want to be your best business partner, offering you a direct distribution channel that will give you better market access and service solutions customized to your needs. FedEx connects the world's most important flower markets The Netherlands, Colombia and Ecuador with North America in only 1 to 4 days.

Deliver directly to your clients in the United States and Canada by means of our special flower services:

- FedEx International Priority®: Delivery time within 24 to 48 hours. Service available only from Bogota and The Netherlands
- FedEx International Priority DirectDistribution®: Delivery time within 3 days to 4 days. Service available from Bogota, Medellin, Quito and The Netherlands

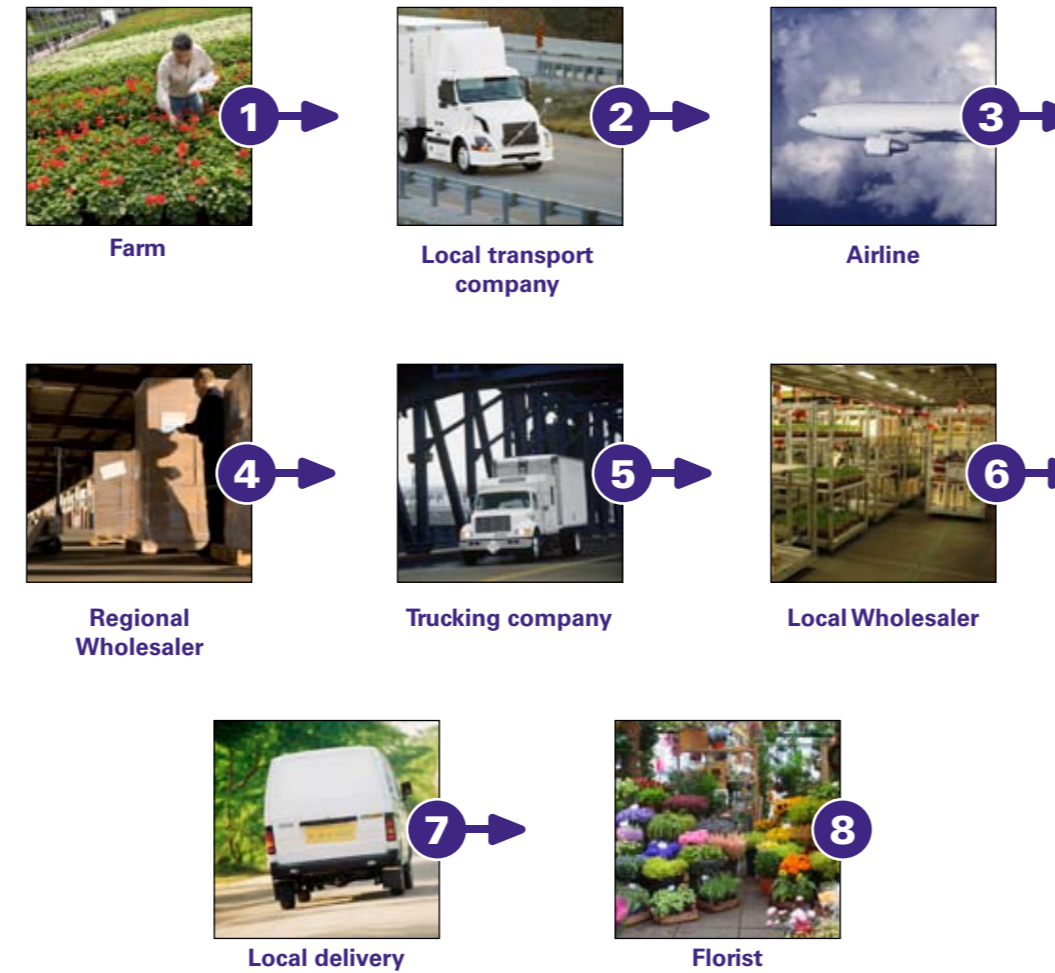

FedEx: Faster, fresher, reliable and more profitable*.

- From your farm, to your customer. Our infrastructure and logistics allow you to deliver directly to your customers without intermediaries, which means bigger profits for your business.
- Grow your business. Through the FedEx distribution network, you will be able to explore new markets and business opportunities.

- Greater freshness. Thanks to FedEx efficiency and reliability, as well as our cool Chain, your flowers arrive fresher and stay fresh longer.
- Automated Solutions Thanks to FedEx eBusiness tools you can track your flowers 24 hours a day. Furthermore, you can arrange your shipments and alert your clients so they may place an order from the United States directly to your farm. All without leaving your desk.

* Compared to traditional supply chain.

Your shipments and logistics without FedEx

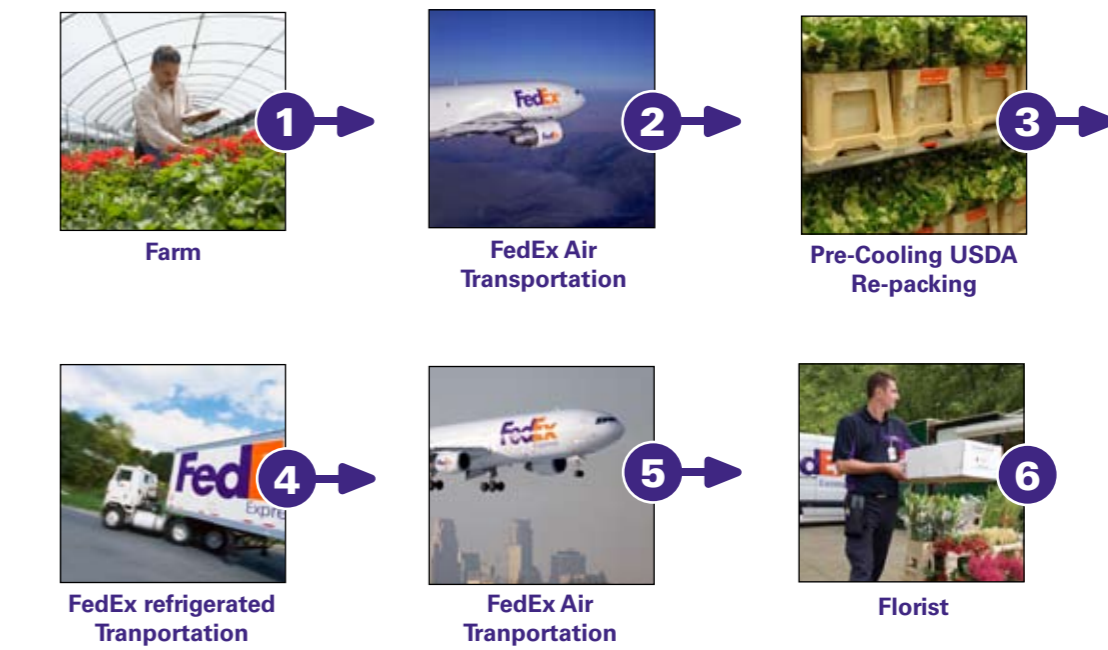

Your shipments without FedEx: from 7 to 10 days, relying on 3 to 6 parties

FedEx International Priority® delivery time within 24 to 48 hours

Using FedEx International Priority ensures you that your shipment will be delivered directly at a chosen flower shop in the US and Canada.

FedEx International Priority DirectDistribution®

This service offers you more profitability* and the advantage of knowing where your shipments are at every moment.

* Compared to traditional supply chain.

Automated Solutions

Keep track of your shipment anywhere around the world

It doesn't matter what type of flowers you export, there is a solution that can be tailored to your transportation needs, with the trust that only FedEx can guarantee.

eShipping Tools

FedEx Ship Manager® enables you to automate your complete shipping process. This makes shipping easier and will help you save significant time.

FedEx Insight® monitors your shipments on their way to your customers and can give immediate notification via e-mail of delivery, clearance delays and attempted delivery.

Our online tool, FedEx® Global Trade Manager on fedex.com, can indicate whether or not you require a Commercial Invoice and highlight any additional customs clearance forms that would be required to accompany your shipment.

Ecommerce solutions

By integrating FedEx services and FedEx technology in superior eCommerce solutions, FedEx is able to provide your customers the trust they need to choose, click and buy.

For more information about FedEx eBusiness Tools, please visit FedEx.com or contact your sales representative.

Make your business bloom with FedEx

fedex.com

COLOMBIA:

Customer Service: 01 8000 110339
Bogota: (571) 291 0100

ECUADOR:

Quito: (593) 2 226 8555

THE NETHERLANDS

Customer Service: 0800 0222 333

IMPORTANT: For more details about FedEx services or if you have any questions about the documentation necessary to export your flowers, contact our customer service department and ask for one of our account executives to contact you.

