

U.S. Commercial Service

Business Matchmaking

Connect with the right partners and prospects.

International business development is a labor-intensive endeavor for any company. The U.S. Commercial Service can jump-start your efforts by helping you to identify, screen, and meet prospective partners, agents, distributors, and customers.

With offices across the United States and in nearly 80 countries, our trade professionals have strong relationships with local business, industry, and government leaders, and can connect you to the right business partners and prospects.

Maximize your business development efforts with our partner searches, personalized business matchmaking, trade missions, trade shows, and in-country promotions.

U.S. Commercial Service—Connecting you to global markets.

“TMS has received nothing but impeccable service from the U.S. Commercial Service, who provided us with key introductions and access to South African government and business decision makers that have facilitated our business throughout the country.”

—Frank Sherman
President & CEO
Transportation Management Services

The U.S. Commercial Service helped TMS parlay an initial export sale of $156,000 in 2007 into over $10 million worth of sales in South Africa, including transportation projects for the 2010 World Cup.
