SIX FEDEX DRIVERS EARN HONORS
AT THE ARKANSAS STATE TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP
Winners Demonstrate Commitment to Safety and Professionalism

LOWELL, Ark. – June 15, 2009 – Six drivers representing FedEx Corp. (NYSE: FDX) operating companies placed among the winners at the 2009 Arkansas State Truck Driving Championship in Lowell on June 12-13.

- FedEx Ground contractor David Thompson, based in Little Rock, captured the title in the Step Van class.
- FedEx Freight driver David Van Dusen (Little Rock) placed second in the 5-Axle class and was also named Rookie of the Year.
- George Bareis, a contractor for FedEx Ground in Fayetteville, finished second in the Straight Truck class.
- FedEx Ground contractors Jeremy Byerley (Fayetteville) and Ed Heacox (Little Rock) were second and third, respectively, in the Step Van class.
- Pine Bluff-based FedEx Freight driver Chris Parker placed third in the 4-Axle class.

In addition, Scott Morrow, a driver for FedEx Freight driver in Texarkana, posted the best score in the Pre-Trip Inspection portion of the competition.

Thompson will go on to compete at the American Trucking Associations' 2009 National Truck Driving Championships (NTDC), known as the "Super Bowl of Safety" August 18-22, 2009 in Pittsburgh. In addition, each state winner will be recognized by FedEx as part of its safe driving initiative, The Chairman's Challenge.

The Arkansas State Truck Driving Championship is an opportunity for professional truck drivers to demonstrate their driving skills and commitment to safety. The event includes a difficult driving skills test, pre-trip inspection and written examination covering vehicle operation and knowledge of federal safety regulations.

In 2008, 70 driving professionals from 36 states representing FedEx Freight, FedEx National LTL, FedEx Ground, FedEx Express and FedEx Custom Critical qualified to compete at the National Truck Driving Championships by winning their respective state's competition and driving accident-free for at least one year. FedEx drivers captured National Champion titles in the Tank Truck, 4-Axle and Twins classes and the NTDC Rookie of the Year honor. In addition, FedEx drivers earned three additional top-three finishes in their respective vehicle classes.
