EIGHT FEDEX DRIVERS EARN HONORS
AT THE MICHIGAN STATE TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP
Winners Demonstrate Commitment to Safety and Professionalism

LANSING, Mich. – June 29, 2009 – Eight drivers representing FedEx Corp. (NYSE: FDX) operating companies placed among the winners at the 2009 Michigan State Truck Driving Championship in Lansing on June 26-27.

- Jim Fisher, a driver for FedEx Freight based in Toledo, Ohio, captured the top spot in the 3-Axle class for his third state title in four years.
- Flint-based FedEx Freight driver Chris Thomas won the Twins class for the second straight year. This marks his third state title.
- Ron Metternick, a FedEx National LTL driver in Grand Rapids, earned first place in the Tank Truck class.
- FedEx Freight driver Mark Duensing (Warren) finished second in the Twins class.
- Kenn Zelten, an owner-operator for FedEx Custom Critical based in Menominee, took second place in the 5-Axle Sleeper class.
- FedEx Freight driver Kevin Derrick (Jackson) was third in the Straight Truck class.
- FedEx Express driver Tom Jordan (Romulus) placed third in the 5-Axle class.
- Robert Sikes, a driver for FedEx Freight in Toledo, was named Rookie of the Year.

Fisher, Thomas and Metternick will go on to compete at the American Trucking Associations' 2009 National Truck Driving Championships (NTDC), known as the "Super Bowl of Safety" August 18-22, 2009 in Pittsburgh. In addition, each state winner will be recognized by FedEx as part of its safe driving initiative, The Chairman's Challenge.

The Michigan State Truck Driving Championship is an opportunity for professional truck drivers to demonstrate their driving skills and commitment to safety. The event includes a difficult driving skills test, pre-trip inspection and written examination covering vehicle operation and knowledge of federal safety regulations.

In 2008, 70 driving professionals from 36 states representing FedEx Freight, FedEx National LTL, FedEx Ground, FedEx Express and FedEx Custom Critical qualified to compete at the National Truck Driving Championships by winning their respective state's competition and driving accident-free for at least one year. FedEx drivers captured National Champion titles in the Tank Truck, 4-Axle and Twins classes and the NTDC Rookie of the Year honor. In addition, FedEx drivers earned three additional top-three finishes in their respective vehicle classes.
