NINE FEDEX DRIVERS EARN HONORS
AT THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP
Winners Demonstrate Commitment to Safety and Professionalism

SMITHFIELD, N.C. – May 11, 2009 – Nine drivers representing FedEx Corp. (NYSE: FDX) operating companies placed among the winners at the 2009 North Carolina State Truck Driving Championship in Smithfield on May 8-9.

- Matt Alberts and Jake Brown, drivers for FedEx Express based in Greensboro, captured the top spots in the Straight Truck and 4-Axle classes, respectively, to earn their second state titles.
- Neil Morgan, also a FedEx Express driver in Greensboro, won the Tank Truck class.
- Kenneth Stack, a contractor for FedEx Ground in Greensboro, finished second in the Straight Truck class.
- FedEx Freight driver William Goodson (Charlotte) took second in the Tank Truck class.
- FedEx Express driver Andy Heffner (Greensboro) was second in the Twins class.
- Greensboro-based FedEx Freight drivers John Cecil and Basher Pierce posted third-place finishes in the 5-Axle and Flatbed classes, respectively.
- FedEx National LTL driver David Harris (Charlotte) finished third in the 3-Axle class.

Alberts, Brown and Morgan will go on to compete at the American Trucking Associations' 2009 National Truck Driving Championships (NTDC), known as the "Super Bowl of Safety" August 18-22, 2009 in Pittsburgh. In addition, each state winner will be recognized by FedEx as part of its safe driving initiative, The Chairman's Challenge.

The North Carolina State Truck Driving Championship is an opportunity for professional truck drivers to demonstrate their driving skills and commitment to safety. The event includes a difficult driving skills test, pre-trip inspection and written examination covering vehicle operation and knowledge of federal safety regulations.

In 2008, 70 driving professionals from 36 states representing FedEx Freight, FedEx National LTL, FedEx Ground, FedEx Express and FedEx Custom Critical qualified to compete at the National Truck Driving Championships by winning their respective state's competition and driving accident-free for at least one year. FedEx drivers captured National Champion titles in the Tank Truck, 4-Axle and Twins classes and the NTDC Rookie of the Year honor. In addition, FedEx drivers earned three additional top-three finishes in their respective vehicle classes.
