TEN FEDEX DRIVERS EARN HONORS
AT THE NEVADA STATE TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP
Winners Demonstrate Commitment to Safety and Professionalism

RENO, Nev. – June 16, 2009 – Ten drivers representing FedEx Corp. (NYSE: FDX) operating companies placed among the winners at the 2009 Nevada State Truck Driving Championship in Reno on June 13.

- Reno-based FedEx Freight driver Gragg Wilson won the 5-Axle Sleeper class. This marks his seventh state title.
- FedEx Ground contractor Matthew Meyer (Las Vegas) earned first place in the Step Van class, while his driver, Arthur Corral Jr., captured the top spot in the Straight Truck class. Meyer was also named Rookie of the Year.
- FedEx Ground contractors Archie Candalaria (Reno) and Efrain Mercado (Las Vegas) finished second and third, respectively, in the Step Van class.
- FedEx Express driver Robert Fini and FedEx Ground contractor Sergio Romero placed second and third, respectively, in the Straight Truck class. Both are based in Las Vegas.
- Reno-based FedEx Freight driver Craig Poupene posted a second-place finish in the Tank Truck class.
- FedEx Ground contractor Omar Talavera (Las Vegas) was second in the Twins class.
- FedEx Express driver Patrick Nerger (Reno) finished third in the 5-Axle class.

Wilson, Meyer and Corral will go on to compete at the American Trucking Associations' 2009 National Truck Driving Championships (NTDC), known as the “Super Bowl of Safety” August 18-22, 2009 in Pittsburgh. In addition, each state winner will be recognized by FedEx as part of its safe driving initiative, The Chairman’s Challenge.

The Nevada State Truck Driving Championship is an opportunity for professional truck drivers to demonstrate their driving skills and commitment to safety. The event includes a difficult driving skills test, pre-trip inspection and written examination covering vehicle operation and knowledge of federal safety regulations.

In 2008, 70 driving professionals from 36 states representing FedEx Freight, FedEx National LTL, FedEx Ground, FedEx Express and FedEx Custom Critical qualified to compete at the National Truck Driving Championships by winning their respective state's competition and driving accident-free for at least one year. FedEx drivers captured National Champion titles in the Tank Truck, 4-Axle and Twins classes and the NTDC Rookie of the Year honor. In addition, FedEx drivers earned three additional top-three finishes in their respective vehicle classes.
