EIGHT FEDEX DRIVERS EARN HONORS
AT THE WISCONSIN STATE TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP
Winners Demonstrate Commitment to Safety and Professionalism

APPLETON, Wis. – June 15, 2009 – Eight drivers representing FedEx Corp. (NYSE: FDX) operating companies placed among the winners at the 2009 Wisconsin State Truck Driving Championship in Appleton on June 12-13.

- Brent Glasenapp, a driver for FedEx Express in Milwaukee, earned first place in the Straight Truck class. This is his fourth state title since 2005.
- FedEx Freight driver Jason Hillier, based in Madison, captured the top spot in the 4-Axle class.
- FedEx Express driver James Burmesch, domiciled in Milwaukee, won the title in the 3-Axle class.
- Waukesha-based FedEx Express drivers Robert Diehl and Gail Wurch finished second and third, respectively, in the Step Van class.
- FedEx Freight driver Gary Reimer (Mauston) placed second in the 3-Axle class.
- Scott Parks, a FedEx Express driver in Milwaukee, was second in the 5-Axle class.
- FedEx Ground contractor Guy Fredrickson (Oshkosh) finished third in the Straight Truck class.

Additionally, the team from FedEx Express posted the highest team average.

Glasenapp, Hillier and Burmesch will go on to compete at the American Trucking Associations' 2009 National Truck Driving Championships (NTDC), known as the "Super Bowl of Safety" August 18-22, 2009 in Pittsburgh. In addition, each state winner will be recognized by FedEx as part of its safe driving initiative, The Chairman's Challenge.

The Wisconsin State Truck Driving Championship is an opportunity for professional truck drivers to demonstrate their driving skills and commitment to safety. The event includes a difficult driving skills test, pre-trip inspection and written examination covering vehicle operation and knowledge of federal safety regulations.

In 2008, 70 driving professionals from 36 states representing FedEx Freight, FedEx National LTL, FedEx Ground, FedEx Express and FedEx Custom Critical qualified to compete at the National Truck Driving Championships by winning their respective state's competition and driving accident-free for at least one year. FedEx drivers captured National Champion titles in the Tank Truck, 4-Axle and Twins classes and the NTDC Rookie of the Year honor. In addition, FedEx drivers earned three additional top-three finishes in their respective vehicle classes.
