

DISCLAIMER

Please select the “I accept” button located below after the Disclaimer statement once you have read and agreed in order to reach the Shipper’s Declaration for Dangerous Goods template.

Proper training is required under federal and/or state regulations to handle dangerous goods and/or hazardous materials. All persons and entities must comply with all federal regulations, including but not limited to the specific training requirement of 49 C.F.R. (172.700 – 172.704).

FedEx Express provides these materials as a service, to be used as guidelines to assist properly trained shippers. The materials provided by FedEx Express in no way alter, satisfy or influence any federal or state requirements. The attached information provided does not meet the training requirements as required in DOT 49 CFR.

The study and/or use of these FedEx Express materials does not qualify an individual to prepare, package, transport or otherwise handle dangerous goods or hazardous materials.

The information contained in this document is subject to change or update due to changing government regulations. The user of this document assumes responsibility for complying with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the shipment of Dangerous Goods.

FedEx shall not be held responsible for any loss, injury and/or damage caused by errors, omissions, misprints or misrepresentations of the contents of this document or for any unauthorized or inappropriate use.

IMPORTANT NOTE: FedEx Express Shipper’s Declaration for Dangerous Goods templates may only be used for: 1) radioactive materials; 2) shipments that use an 023 air waybill (FedEx International Express Freight®, FedEx International Airport-to-AirportSM and FedEx International Premium® services); or 3) shipments that originate outside of the United States (including U.S. territories). If your shipment does not fall into one of these categories, you must use FedEx Express automated shipping solutions or FedEx-recognized vendor systems to prepare Shipper’s Declarations.
